

2nd AIUB International Conference of Business and Management

Changing Global Business Paradigm

Abstract Submission Guideline

The conference organizers accept online submissions written in English, closely linked to the areas set out in the Call for Papers.

- ☛ The abstract should be within 250-300 words, and the issue, goals, research methods, results, and conclusions must be indicated.
- ☛ Please download the abstract template and follow the format carefully. Abstracts that do not fulfill the word limit should be forwarded for revision.
- ☛ Authors can also submit an extended abstract following the guideline of extended abstract.
- ☛ Please be aware that only online submissions will be accepted, thus completing the Abstract Submission Process, and that all abstracts submitted via email, fax, or post will not be considered.
- ☛ Abstract submission should be in English.
- ☛ Author/Authors should submit an informative abstract that embrace a comprehensive summary of a research paper including purpose, background, methodology, results, and conclusion
- ☛ Authors are recommended to revise their abstracts as abstracts from the online submission will be reproduced. Any spelling, grammar, or data errors will appear either online or in print.
- ☛ The author who submits the abstract must register separately for the conference by filling out the registration form.
- ☛ If two authors submit an abstract, an official registration must be made by both authors.
- ☛ Please send a short biography along with the abstract.

Once you prepared your abstract according to the above guidelines,

Submit your abstract via <https://aicbm.aiub.edu> or email to aicbm@aiub.edu